Chapter 3

- Do you embrace the process of conviction and repentance because you want to love God? p.39
- Do you repent to the root of your lordship? Are changes permanent or temporary?
- Do you abide in Christ or visit on occasions?
What are the implications of John 15:4 (think of who's words they are) p.40
- What is the number 1 stumbling block described on page 41?
- Do you believe it takes years to start becoming Christlike?
If so, do you make excuses for sins and resign yourself to rebellion? p.41
- Do you proclaim that you're a new creation even without the fruit to show it? p.41
- Consider what this statement from page 42 means:
'Every method or plan you come up with to be like Christ will fail'.
- When convicted or sin is challenged, do you focus on the positive benefits of being changed into the image of Christ or do you focus on the discomfort your flesh feels?
p.43
- Along with Romans 8:3, consider this statement from page 44:
'Sin does not exist in the Kingdom of God'
- Do you believe it is possible to be continually righteous and therefore do not have to sin every day?
- Considering 1 John 1:9, rather than a shallow admission of being wrong, how could you define true confession? p.47
- What do the following statements mean to you? p. 49
'Your sins do not cause His love to waver'.
'God knows all about you, yet still loves you'.
- Finally, do you have a journal, diary, record or a notebook as described on page 49?
