Chapter 11

- Do you maintain a heart of humility that attracts God's abundant grace? p.118
- Discuss this statement: p. 118
'Grace is extended to you because of who He is, not because of who you are'.
- Take some time to seek the Lord about whether you have a proper motive, even if it seems like a 'good' motive. p.119
- Read Mark 12:30 and discuss why obeying this commandment sets the foundation for your whole relationship with God. p.119
- Discuss this statement: p.121
'Sin has consequences, even when you are a believer. It is only by God's goodness and mercy that you escape sin's penalties'.
- Is your attitude correctly balanced towards the goodness and severity of God? p.120
- Where do thoughts come from that focus on your comfort or preferences? p.122
- Do you have a right attitude to the written Word of God? p.122
- Why is it necessary to acknowledge the Lord in small details of your life? p.124/125
- When God gives you a command, do you procrastinate or is your obedience instant? p. 126
- Read Hebrews 13:17 AMPC and discuss its implications. p. 126
Is it a command or a suggestion?
- Consider this amazing statement: p. 118
'Obeying the Father is only hard on your flesh. Your eternal spirit loves to obey Him!'.
